It Is Your Duty To Vote In The Elections Saturday In Gym

Who's going to take care of the rest of the country while the doctors are gathered in Washington?

Twelve thousand physicians are here this week for the meeting of the American Medical Association. Many of these men are George Washington graduates. They will take this opportunity of forming a permanent alumni association. Certainly no group which goes out from the University is more closely bound by common interests and high professional ideals than are the graduates of the Medical School. A Medical Alumni Association should be of lasting benefit to the University and to its members.

A directory of "Living Medical School Alumni" is to be distributed at the banquet tonight. It would be a bit presumptuous to distribute a directory of the dead ones.

With voting for next year's class officers under way, the campus has assumed the complexion of the Tenth Ward in the throes of a Tammany election. Elections this time are to be conducted in a manner which will insure an announcement of the results within a reasonable time after the votes are cast.

In all other respects, however, elections will take the usual course. Sigma Chi, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Alpha, Sig Alpha, Theta Delta, Acacia, Phi Phi, Phi Mu, Delta Zeta, Sigma Kappa and Gamma Beta Pi will support one ticket, while votes for the opposing candidates will be cast by S. P. E., Chi O., T. U. O., Kappa Sig., A. D. Pi, K. D., Phi Sig., Sigma Nu, and Phi Alpha.

Non-fraternity men and women will vote either not at all or for the candidates whose supporters are first to accost them. A few fearless individuals may go so far as to vote a split ticket.

The only complicating factor in the situation is that Betty Brandenburg, who is sponsor for the K. A. chapter here, is a candidate on the opposing ticket. K. A.s are frantically seeking a solution for this embarrassing situation.

The Women's Self Government Association has printed and distributed by mail to all women students an elaborate constitution and set of by-laws. Article III of the constitution is enlightening. It states: "All women students registered in the Department of Arts and Sciences shall be members of the Women's Self Government Association, and all women students registered in the Law and Medical Schools, upon application to the Association." Apparently, the only way to escape membership in the association is to become a student of law or of medicine, in which case membership would be only voluntary.

Baseball is dead, it is announced, because of the fact that games could not be arranged with C. U. and American University. The rival institutions must have had scouts at the Pyramid-Faculty baseball game.

The story in this issue headed "Fraternity Row Plan Is Discussed" refers not to the altercation which took place at the Interfraternity Council meeting last Sunday, but to a project for centralizing fraternity houses. The "row" in this instance rhymes with "owe," not "cow."

The Woodrow Wilson Foundation again calls attention to its essay contest, in which two prizes of $25,000 each will be awarded for 2500 word essays. Ten dollars a word is compensation in excess of that received by the authors of most best sellers, and is well worth trying for.

Much has been printed about the first debate of the George Washington team on English soil, and in all cases the emphasis has been placed on the decision that was reached. The fact is not yet recognized that Englishmen are more interested in the sport of debate than in the results. The decision to them is relatively unimportant.

After Tuesday, the deluge.

VARSITY TRACK STARS CAPTURE HOTCHKISS CUP

Gallaudet Outclassed 98 to 33 In Dual Meet Held Last Saturday

HALF-INCH SEPARATES BROAD JUMP WINNERS
Abbott, Elliott, Willett, Score For Colonials; Bilger, Thompson For Kendall

George Washington track stars rang up their second consecutive triumph when they swamped Gallaudet 98 to 33 in a dual meet held between schools last Saturday afternoon at Kendall Green.

By virtue of this win the Colonials gain permanent possession of the Hotchkiss Cup, which was donated in 1924 by the track managers of the two schools. According to the original agreement, the cup was to be competed for each year until one of the schools had won the trophy twice, when it would become the permanent property of that institution.

In 1924 Gallaudet was victorious in the dual meet, but George Washington easily took the cup in 1925. Last year there was no meet, and as a consequence, the Saturday afternoon encounter decided the ownership of the trophy, named in honor of Dr. John B. Hotchkiss, one of the three members of the first class to graduate from Gallaudet.

The winner of the meet was never in doubt after the first event, which was a closely contested 100-yard dash, won by DeVoe of George Washington, who barely nosed Bilger of Gallaudet, out of first place. From then on the Colonials seemed to score almost at will. In only two events of the entire fifteen constituting the program did the Kendall Greeners take first place, and thereby outscore the Buff and Blue trackmen.

Gallaudet Wins 220
Gallaudet took first and second places in the 220-yard dash, with Thompson and Bilger both finishing ahead of DeVoe, who crossed the line just two-fifths of a second behind the winner.

The only other event in which George Washington was outpointed was the 220-yard low hurdles. This event was run in three events against time. Smoot of G. W. took the first heat, and Abbott, also of G. W., took the second. In the third heat, Lau of Gallaudet ran the course uncontested in two-fifths of a second less than Abbott's time.

Twice during the meet the Kendall Greeners failed to score in an event.

FINAL GHOST WALKS AT G. W. U. TOMORROW

"Children's" Number Goes on Sale Then; Club Promises Good Issue

Tomorrow the final issue of the Ghost, campus comic magazine, will be placed on sale by the G. W. U. Press Club. This edition, known as the "Children's" number, is reported to be the best of the four magazines published this year.

With a cover by Rowland Lyon and some clever work by the staff artists and joke-smiths the new issue is expected to enjoy a large sale. Special enameled paper is being used for this number and should give the magazine more body.

The comic will be peddled about the campus, and will also be on sale at all prominent newsstands around the University and downtown.

Plan for Next Year

Plans are being formulated for next year. A meeting of the Club will be held tomorrow night at eight o'clock in the Hatchet Office and the details of organization will be worked out. At the same meeting Rolston Lyon, circulation manager, will be initiated into the Club.

The Press Club has received faculty permission to issue the Ghost next season, and plan to put out a magazine each month. The book will, in all probability, contain twice the present number of pages and will be embellished by many additional features.

Two or three members of the staff will go to Philadelphia and New York as soon as school is over to line up the national advertisers on contracts for next year.

FRESHMAN HYGIENE

Saturday morning at 11.05 in Corcoran Hall 23, Dr. Frank A. Hornaday will give the final Hygiene lecture of the year to the men of the freshman class.

This last meeting of the class will take the nature of a review of the year's work in preparation for the final examination in Hygiene, which will be held Saturday, May 28, at 10.05 in Corcoran Hall 1.

COLONIALS WIN OUTDOOR RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIP

Score Record By Taking Both Indoor and Outdoor National Titles

SYRACUSE LEADS AT END OF FIRST STAGE
Team Shows Fine Form, Parsons and Riley Taking First and Third Places

With a heavy wind and a miserable rain beating against them, George Washington University's men's rifle team fought its way to another championship in their winning of the National Rifle Association Outdoor title at Camp Meade, Saturday.

The Colonials won by a score of 1,090 points out of a possible 1,200, a fair margin over Syracuse's 1,040 which scored second.

Having won the National Indoor Championship on April 16 in New York, the coping of this event is an especially triumphant one for the G. W. riflemen.

For the first time in the history of inter-collegiate rifle shooting a team has won both coveted titles in the same season and asserted itself unquestionably as national champions.

Parsons Stars

Frank T. Parsons, Jr., captain-elect of the Colonial team distinguished himself by a perfect score at the 200 and 300 yard rapid fire stages, and coming out high individual with 188 points out of a possible 200.

Schwartzing, of the Syracuse team, and Hugh E. Riley, retiring captain of the G. W. team came a close second and third with 185 and 184.

The Colonials were coached by Walter Stokes, former world free rifle champion, and Just C. Jensen, captain of the District National Guard.

H. E. Pluggie assisted as alternate manager of the Colonials.

Starting out in a stiff breeze the Washington team made a poor start and trailed Syracuse by 13 points at the end of the 200 yard stage.

Brilliant Shooting

However, by two perfect scores at 200 yards rapid fire the G. W. team ran up to 6 points behind Syracuse and after a series of brilliant shots at 300 yards rapid fire reached the top with a margin of 6 points.

In the long 600-yard range the Buff and Blue showed its championship form, averaging 46-2-3 points per man with the nearest rival barely making 40.

At the conclusion of the match L. F. Brandy, representative of the National Rifle Association, presented the G. W. marksmen with silver medals.

The Colonials individual scores are as follows:

	200	300	600	T.
S. R. R. S.
R. A. Leighy	40	49	43	175
H. E. Riley	39	49	49	184
J. A. Schriker	36	47	50	183
G. W. Campbell	33	48	50	180
F. N. Strawnbridge	35	50	48	180
F. T. Parsons	42	50	50	188

BANQUET OF MEDICAL ALUMNI DUE TONIGHT

Directory of Living Medical School Graduates To Be Distributed At Dinner

Tonight the Medical Alumni of George Washington holds its first banquet at the City Club. The banquet is the result of the efforts of the following committee: Dr. Wm. J. Mallory, Dr. Boyce R. Bolton, Dr. John A. Reed, Dr. Helen Gladys Kain, Dr. F. A. Hornaday, and Dr. C. N. Chipman.

Every medical alumnus of George Washington has been invited to attend and a large percentage is expected, as well as the whole of the graduating class of the Medical School.

One of the features of the banquet will be the attractive programs which are done in Buff and Blue, and contain the menu, the committee of affairs, a program, and, what is most important, a directory of the living graduates of the Medical School. Up to the present time, there has never been a directory of the Medical School.

Other features of the banquet will be entertainment by the G. W. Glee Club, orchestras, and speeches by prominent alumni, as well as Ex-Dean Phillips, who is coming from North Carolina to talk to the alumni.

Doctor Chipman has received response from Doctor Prout, who is the oldest living medical alumnus of G. W. Doctor Prout is 94 years old and a member of the class of 1856. He is extremely interested in the formation of an alumni society and although he is unable to attend the banquet, he wishes to be here tonight in spirit and has sent his check for a place at the table.

PREXY TO GIVE TEA

In honor of the American Medical Association, the President, Trustees and Faculties of George Washington University will give a tea in Corcoran Hall No. 1, Thursday afternoon, May 19 from 4.30 to 6 o'clock.

Pyramid Performers Pound Prexy's Pitches Pitilessly

Faculty Ace Retires After Two Bitter Innings In 24-9 Slugfest—Ex-waterboy Croissant Is Promoted To Batboy—Prof. Rally Falls Short 15 Runs.

By HERBERT E. ANGEL

Beneath ominous storm clouds, and still more threatening glances of the profs, the Pyramid Honor Society gleefully pounded the offerings of the faculty pitching ace, President William Mather Lewis, and thereby took the annual so-called baseball game between the professors and the honor men last Thursday afternoon by a 24 to 9 score.

Maybe it was due to the newspaper camera men who were present, or maybe it was caused by lack of practice, but whatever the reason, the crowd which gathered to see the perennial diamond classic quickly observed that Prexy Lewis was off form. V. Brown, the first Pyramid batter, fouled the first two pitches, and then straightened out a drive to left field which netted him two bases. F. Brown popped up a short fly behind first base, but Valear was safe as Roeser fumbled his slow roller down the first base line.

Hottel singled to right, bringing in V. Brown, and advancing Valear, who went on to third as Athey grounded out. Tolson reached first safely when Mason and Bolwell scrambled for the ball, Valear scoring. As Lewis was winding up for a pitch to Bixler, Hottel stole home, but the batting spread ended when Bixler rolled to first for an easy out.

Profs. Go Scoreless

In their half of the first inning, the profs attempted to hit the ball to all corners of the lot (if the Ellipse may be said to have corners), but failed to do more than endanger the windshields of passing automobiles with foul tips. Mason struck out, Bolwell beat out an infield hit, and was thrown out trying to steal second. Roeser singled sharply to center, stole second, and was run down as he tried to pilfer third.

Despite their weakness at bat, the faculty attracted considerable attention from the spectators during their batting turn. A hurried census disclosed that five of the faculty were knucklers, that President Lewis had the "noisiest" pair of golf shoes, that one prof. dressed entirely in white, and that still another wore a famous black shirt of the type which Mussolini has glorified. However, the real honors for the best-dressed man went to the ex-water boy for the faculty, Professor DeWitt C. Croissant, who, leaving the water-bucket at home, became instead batboy extra-ordinary.

Dr. Croissant was dressed in a becoming gray salt and pepper suit, from the pocket of which a brown handkerchief protruded. His shirt was a beautiful sepi, with a "hard-boiled" collar and blue bow tie tastefully arranged above it. A 1926 Panama hat was his only head-covering, while his feet were graced with black shoes and tan spats. For

G. W. U. DEBATERS OPEN AT OXFORD

First Debate of Trip Results In Audience Vote Against Monroe Doctrine

TRIMBLE ON BRITISH SIDE

Williamson and McSwain Argue in Favor of Present American Attitude

Participating in their first encounter abroad, two members of the George Washington University debating team suffered a defeat at the hands of two Oxford University students, with the assistance of one of the Hatchette debaters.

In discussing the subject, "Resolved: That this house cannot support the Monroe Doctrine," William A. McSwain and William F. Williamson defended the United States present attitude in regard to South America and the Monroe Doctrine. John T. Trimble, captain of the Colonial group, sided with the affirmative, being supported by an Oxford man from Peru and one native Englishman. Hence this could hardly be termed an English victory.

New Debate Method

At the opening of the debate a vote was taken regarding the views of the audience, and the house was found to be about evenly divided. A final ballot showed that opposition to the Monroe Doctrine was favored by almost 4 to 1. The engagement was attended by over 200 people.

The method of debate employed at this meeting of the renowned university debating society of the Oxford Union, held May 13, is similar to that introduced in this city last February when Swarthmore was engaged in debate here. At that time considerable notice was taken of this new type of debate presentation, in which team-mates oppose each other, assisted by students of opposing colleges. The University Debaters Annual contains a detailed account of the contest, and a verbatim copy of the speeches that were presented.

As this type of debate has achieved great popularity in Europe, its place of origin, it is very likely that a majority of the debates in which the Hatchettes will engage will be of this kind.

"FRATERNITY ROW" PLAN DISCUSSED AT MEETING

"Fraternity Row," the centering of George Washington fraternity houses in one block, will some day come to pass if the ideas brought forward at the last meeting of the President's Student Advisory Committee are realized.

Although nothing definite was decided, various suggestions were introduced at the meeting. It was thought that "Fraternity Row" should be in harmony with the architectural features of the newer University buildings. Prices were discussed and locations considered.

At some later date it is expected that there will be a meeting of representatives from all the fraternities to discuss further these plans for a "Fraternity Row."

CLASS OFFICIALS WILL BE ELECTED SATURDAY IN GYM

Columbian, Engineering and Teachers College Officers Will Be Chosen For 1927-8

POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPT. IN CHARGE OF BALLOTS

New Experiment in Method of Conducting Elections to Be Tried; Dr. West in Charge

Election of officers for the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes in Columbian College and in Engineering School and the Junior and Senior officers in Teachers College will be held in the gymnasium Saturday. Balloting booths will be open from ten until one, and from four until seven.

Professor Warren Reid West, of the Political Science Department of the University, will have charge of the election and an experiment will be made in the method of handling the same. The same method which is used in national and state elections will be used by those in charge of the voting.

Ballot will be of the uniform "Australian" nature. Only one ballot will be issued a voter and he must mark it and sign it in a designated place. There will be no electioneering within the gymnasium during the voting.

Each voter must identify himself in some way to the officer in charge and have his eligibility looked up and his name checked before he is allowed to vote. Identification may be by student activity card or by some other method within the discretion of the officer in charge. The list of voters furnished by the Registrar's office will be final in determining eligibility.

Nominations Made

Officers for next year's Sophomore class will be voted for by all present freshmen in good standing. Freshmen are those having less than 24 hours credit. Junior officer will be voted for by Sophomores, which means those having between 24 and 54 hours credit, and Senior officers will be balloted for by Juniors, or those with more than 54 hours credit and who will not graduate this June.

One watcher from each interested group will be allowed at the polls. Such a person should be suggested to Professor Doyle by each faction. Further announcements concerning the balloting will be placed on the bulletin boards.

Professor Doyle, in commenting on the new system, said that it is "an experiment to bring out a larger

GRADUATE RECEPTION WILL BE HELD JUNE 4

G. W. General Alumni Association To Hold Annual Affair at Rauscher's

The annual reception to the graduating class of the University by the General Alumni Association will be held Saturday, June 4, at Rauscher's, Connecticut Avenue and L Streets N. W., at 8 o'clock. For a number of years it has been the custom of the Association to hold this reception.

In view of the fact of President Lewis' resignation and impending departure from Washington, the Committee on Arrangements, of which Mr. Joshua Evans, Jr. is chairman, and Miss Maxine Rolle is assistant, has deemed it proper that the annual affair take the form of a farewell reception in honor of President and Mrs. Lewis. Although the program has not yet been definitely worked out, there will be a number of talks by people prominent in University and civic affairs.

Business Meeting

At the conclusion of the business meeting of the Association, and the reception to Dr. and Mrs. Lewis, there will be dancing and refreshments. The Association has extended a cordial invitation to alumni, faculty members, and friends of the University to be in attendance.

One of the purposes of the affair is to introduce seniors to the Alumni Association, for all graduates of the University automatically become members of the Association for the period of one year succeeding their graduation.

The officers of the General Alumni Association for next year will be elected at this meeting.

NO SENIOR PROM

According to information received by the Hatchet from the Senior class officers, no attempt will be made this year to hold a Senior Prom.

Other events of Senior Week, however, will be held, and will include the Annual Pilgrimage to Mount Vernon and the Baccalaureate Sermon.

NOTICE TO REPORTERS

Due to examinations, there will not be an issue of The Hatchet next Wednesday (May 25). However, The Hatchet will be issued on Friday, June 3, after examinations are over. Reporters will be expected to come in for their assignments as usual.

THE ELECTION EXPERIMENT

Although there is, of course, the usual kick about the faculty's running things, it seems to us that the election experiment which is to be tried next Saturday deserves the greatest support and cooperation possible from the student body. Conditions surrounding elections have certainly not been of the best here for several years and numerous instances are on record of the results when the student body is allowed to have charge of the voting. The elections held last Fall are a perfectly obvious example of this. As the result of the way the matter was handled at this time it was months before the votes could be finally checked, and the outcome of two of the elections was so long in being ascertained, that the necessity for the class officers was practically past when the successful candidates were announced.

Dr. West, of the Political Science Department of the University, is to have charge of the election Saturday and voting is to be done in the same way that it is done in National and State elections. Uniform "Australian" ballots will be used and but a single ballot will be given each voter, and then only after he has identified himself and has been recognized as a member of his class in good standing. There will be no electioneering around the polls. This will allow each person to express what are his own personal views with regard to the election and will not allow party politics to control the voter body and soul if he does not wish to be so controlled.

The plan of holding the elections in the Spring of the year also seems a good one on the surface of the matter. By this method officers will be elected and known at the beginning of the school year and class organization can be achieved. There has been a deplorable lack of class organization here for several years and the present method of electing officers should bring about a betterance of this condition.

Parties will not be done away with under this plan, nor should they be done away with. Parties have always been a good factor, all things considered, in National and State politics, and parties in the University should serve to bring out issues sharply and focus attention on deserving candidates. Vote swapping, of course, is not to be highly commended, but the same condition exists in National politics and the evil is not the great one some believe it to be. Under the present method of nomination all factions and interests in the University may place candidates in the field. Perhaps the ideal system would be to have two or three big parties organized, not on fraternity and sorority lines, but on the line of issues.

Participation in student government by the students is increasing. The faculty control after the old student council chaos of four years ago was natural, but we believe the faculty is anxious to grant the students as great a control of their own affairs as is possible and practicable. Certainly the faculty control of elections is done in the interest of the student body at large and should be upheld and supported because of this fact.

SPRING parties and dances are over and with the passing of class elections everyone will have to forsake their familiar haunts for such pleasant places as the University library and G. W. classrooms. Only professors are free to have a good time. We hope they enjoy themselves.

Delta Tau Delta fraternity held its spring outing at Manor Club last Thursday. The party officially lasted from one until one, although it is reported to have lasted longer. Some of the informal pastimes were golf, bridge, chatting, poker, eating and dancing.

The Sigma Chi outing which was held last Sunday marked the close of the fraternity social season before exams.

Betty Brandenburg entertained with a luncheon bridge at the Congressional Country Club last Wednesday in honor of Miss Frances Davis, who on Saturday of last week became the bride of Ensign Oliver Naquin.

John Jay chapter of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity, announces the formal initiation of Charles E. Mahoney, Massachusetts, Ed C. Johnson, Virginia, Angelo Pizarro, New York, John Finnegan, California, Otto Rogers, Mississippi, and J. T. White, Washington, D. C. Officers of the fraternity installed from the following years are: C. E. Nelson, justice; Moses L. Rich, vice justice; Henry Klinge, clerk; Charles Flutter, treasurer; John C. Ketcham, historian; Junius Romney, interfraternity delegate.

The pledges of Theta Upsilon Omega gave an entertainment and dinner to the fraternity, Sunday evening, May 15.

Chi Omega fraternity announces the formal initiation of Jane Blackstone, Ruth Campbell, Mary Clark, Margaret Hoover, Emily Merritt, Hazel Peterson, Verna Parsons, Roberta Harrison, Virginia Lattimer, Hylda Wrenn, and Margaret Hall. The initiation took place in the chapter rooms last Sunday.

Installation exercises for Mu chapter of Lambda Phi Mu medical fraternity of Georgetown University were held Saturday night, May 7, at the Willard Hotel at a banquet given by Beta chapter of George Washington University. Seven Georgetown medical students were initiated into the chapter.

Lily Alpert was at home to the members of Phi Sigma Sigma and their mothers on Mother's Day. The sorority was also entertained by Lily Brunschwig on May 3.

Kappa Delta held initiation services on Sunday for the following girls: Margaret Brower, Eugenia Cuvelier, Jane Davis, Alys Ewers, Helen Furer, Nancy Griswold, Margaret Harriman, Mary Jamison, Roberta January, Esther Jenkins, Ann Patrick Kent, Claudia Kyle, Maude O'Flaherty, Carolan Plugge, Isabel Robbins, Christine Stewart, Elizabeth Thomas, Virginia Whitney and Winifred Williams.

Warm days may come but Pep Club dances go on forever. The crowd which attended the one last Saturday showed much enthusiasm and the hop proved one of the "hot-test" of the season.

And high school night is over. Not so bad, even if they didn't have food and the orchestra didn't show itself. The gym was two-thirds full and the crowd "hit it up pretty fast" to Elmer Brown's jazz.

The pledges of Alpha Delta Theta were entertained at a dinner party in honor of their initiation on last Saturday evening, May 7.

Margaret Schwarz, Winnie White, Vivian Bane, Betty Brandenburg, Mary Temple Hill, Marjorie White, and Elsie Talbert were honor guests at a supper party given by Mrs. Oliver Naquin, who was formerly Miss Frances Davis, in honor of her bridal party at her home on Twenty-seventh Street, last Friday night.

The K. D's entertained their new initiates with luncheon at the White Peacock last Sunday.

The pledging of Mary Mattingly and Mary Douler was held by Alpha Delta Theta on Monday night, May 9.

Lambda Chapter of Alpha Delta Theta announces the formal initiation of Omeda Brown, Katherine Ehrmantrout, Elizabeth Ford, Elizabeth Miller, Helen Staples, and Marlon Weed.

Kappa Alpha's Spring formal at the Manor Club last Wednesday proved to be one of the best dances of the season. Delegates from practically every fraternity and sorority on the campus were present.

Kappa Alpha's mascot, "Damit" made its first visit to G. W. several days ago. The mascot is undoubtedly a valuable addition as its presence at the baseball games shows.

The members of Phi Sigma Sigma gave a dinner dance at Wardman Park on April 27, in honor of their initiates.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will hold its farewell dance of the season at the chapter house Friday evening, June 3. John Slaughter's Hotel Carleton orchestra will play until 2 a. m. Representatives from all of the national social fraternities on the campus will be guests of the chapter, together with Prof. and Mrs. Kayser, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gropp from the faculty.

Kappa Sigma's informal held at the chapter house Friday evening was voted a huge success by the record-making number of guests present. The Naomi Band performed at par, while the usual harmony was rendered by several of the well-known brothers.

Sigma Kappa recently held formal initiation at the Raleigh Hotel for the following girls: Katherine Arends, Mary Battle, Dorothy Craighill, Helen Drew, Miriam Liches, Alice McAuliff, Evelyn Peake, Annie White Pearce, Grace Roe, Peggy Somerville, and Louise Wilcox. The initiation was followed by a banquet at which Dorothy Crossant presided as toastmistress, Miss Lora Monroe, grand counselor of Sigma Kappa, was the guest of honor.

Curran Cavanagh and Frank Goodwin, members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, have left the University to make a four months' trip through Egypt and the East. A local paper has contracted to take their articles which they will send back concerning their experiences. Members at the local house are awaiting the first shipment of "sand."

Miss Lora Monroe, grand counselor of Sigma Kappa, was entertained by Zeta Chapter last week-end.

Miss Grace Winslow Collier and Ensign Douglas Simpson were married last Thursday evening at All Soul's Church, Chevy Chase Circle. The wedding was a naval one. Miss Alice Cocke was maid-of-honor. Miss Ruth Collier and Miss Margaret Collier, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Simpson is a member of this year's graduating class of George Washington and a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

Zeta Tau Alpha initiated their pledges last Sunday at the home of Beatrice Clephane in Chevy Chase. After the ceremony, supper was served by the alumnae, and the evening was spent in entertainment by the new initiates. Those initiated were Mary Lee Farr, Betty Halsey, Elizabeth Eldhammer, Dorothy Eldhammer, Dorothy Goldaday and Elizabeth Crew.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon had the pleasure of entertaining the members of the Franklin and Marshall tennis team at the chapter house last week when they played the G. W. team in a return match.

Alpha Pi Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi celebrated its seventy-sixth birthday on May 14 at a formal banquet given at the Hotel Powhatan.

Alpha Delta Pi held formal initiation for Louise Cocke on May 6.

The "Styx" met Saturday night at the home of Kenneth Years. After a late supper, plans were discussed for the benefit that will take place Wednesday night at Keith's.

Zeta Tau Alpha held a tea in their rooms a week ago Sunday in honor of their mothers.

The pledges of Zeta Tau Alpha entertained the members of the active and alumnae chapters at a Lap Supper and Sociable in the Zeta rooms last Friday.

Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity will entertain at a dance June 4, which is expected to be a house-warming event for its new house at 1610 Twentieth Street, N. W.

The Kappa Deltas entertained their mothers at tea on Sunday, May 8.

G. W. U. EPISCOPAL CLUB PLANS FINAL MEETING

The George Washington University Episcopal Club held its final business meeting of the school year in Corcoran Hall, Thursday evening. Plans were discussed for a program of increased activity with the beginning of the fall session.

The final meeting of the year will be in the nature of a picnic hike to take place on Saturday, June 11. Further announcements as to the meeting place, time, etc., will be given later.

PLAYERS MEET

The last meeting of the year of the Players will be held in Corcoran Hall 27 tonight at 8 o'clock. All students who took part in the "Beggar on Horseback" or in "The Whole Town's Talking" are requested to be there especially, as there is important business to transact.

BUSINESS STAFF PICNIC

Members of the business staff of the Hatchet held a closed picnic last Friday evening. The picnicers met at the Hatchet office and went in automobiles to Great Falls, Maryland, where a bonfire was built and the customary "eats" were prepared. About 12 members of the staff, chiefly from the circulation department, went on the trip.

IN ANY group of regular fellows, you'll find Prince Albert. It belongs. It speaks the language. You get what we mean the minute you tamp a load of this wonderful tobacco into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and make fire with a match.

Cool as a northeast bedroom. Sweet as a note from the Girl of Girls. Fragrant as a woodland trail. Prince Albert never bites your tongue or parches your throat, no matter how fast you feed it. You'll smoke pipe-load on pipe-load with never a regret.

Buy a tidy red tin of P. A. today. Throw back the hinged lid and breathe deeply of that real tobacco aroma. Then . . . tuck a neat wad into the business-end of your jimmy-pipe and light up. Now you have it . . . that taste! That's Prince Albert, Fellows!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

FOUR-CORNERED TRACK MEET TO CONCLUDE YEAR

Colonial Track Stars Practice For Season Climax Next Saturday

G. W. WILL MAKE BID FOR HONORS AFIELD

Johns Hopkins, Catholic University, Gallaudet to be Met in C. U. Stadium

Constant practice will occupy the Colonial track squad until Saturday afternoon, when it will participate in the climax of the season, a quadrangular meet with Johns Hopkins, Catholic University, and Gallaudet College, which will be held in the C. U. stadium in Brookland at 2 p. m.

Coach Tom Proby will send into the competition a team which has improved greatly since its defeat at the hands of William and Mary early in the season. Two weeks ago the Buff and Blue trackmen turned back Catholic U. by a decisive score, and last Saturday they walked rough-shod over Coach Supplee's Kendall Greeners.

Hope for victory in the four-cornered meet will rest especially on the field men, who have been uniformly successful this season. Popham, Hartzog, Walker, and Suter will be relied upon to score heavily in the discus throw. Hartzog's toss of 124 feet in the Gallaudet meet is considerably better than throws made by Berger and Wrightson of Hopkins, and Langley and Saffo of C. U. in recent meets.

1926 Stars Back

The same quartet with the addition of Wineland is expected to make a creditable showing in the shot put, where Berger and McNeal will compete for Hopkins, Saffo and Zeno for the Cardinals, and Byouk for Gallaudet.

Morrow, Hall, Elliott, and Hartzog will represent the Colonials in the pole vault. On past performances the Buff and Blue should have little trouble in disposing of Champa of C. U., Quirk and Scheidt of Hopkins, and Calame of Gallaudet. For the high jump, Abbott, Hall, and Elliott should furnish interesting competition for Bliger (Gallaudet), Quirk and Vivell (Hopkins), and Coulter (C. U.). Smith and Elliott will be compelled to extend themselves in order to down Vivell (Hopkins), who recently jumped 22 feet 2½ inches, and Gerth, Sullivan (Catholic U.), and Rose (Gallaudet) whose jumps have been somewhat shorter. The javelin throw will bring together Walker, Wineland, and Suter (G. W.), Wood (Hopkins), Malevich, (Continued on page 4)

LIBRARY NOTICE

All books and magazines withdrawn from the University Library must be returned by Wednesday, June 1st, the last day of the examination period.

A record is not clear as long as there is a charge for books or magazines against a student, and the failure to return them will be referred to the Dean and the Treasurer of the University for action.

As the Library facilities are limited, students who do not need to consult library books are requested to study in the classrooms during examination week.

Games to be Played

K. A. and S. P. E. must play off their tie for first place, and S. A. E. in case of a win from T. U. O. will have to enter the tie contest. The winner of this series will then play Kappa Sigma to decide the interfraternity championship.

TENNIS STARS IN MATCH

Kenneth Abrams and Joseph Rutley, tennis stars of the University, will compete for honors in the Racquet Club tournament, which got under way last Sunday.

This tournament has the sanction of the United States Lawn Tennis Association and displaces the former Wardman Park invitation tournament which has been held in former years.

Rutley met Clarence K. Young and Abrams played Samuel Werrick in the first bracket.

DOT AND CIRCLE SHOOT TO CO-EDS

Down Maryland By Single Point To Take Match From All Comers

FIVE PERFECT SCORES

Betty Clark, Marjorie Folsom, Helen Prentiss, Helen Taylor, and Verna Parsons Shoot 100

The Co-ed Rifle team came to the front again in the past week with the announcement of the result of the Dot and Circle Fraternity Rifle match. According to the report received on May 10, the George Washington University team won the Dot and Circle Women's Inter-collegiate Rifle match for 1926-27 by a margin of one point over the trophy holder, the University of Maryland.

The Dot and Circle match is almost a second national inter-collegiate contest. The Dot and Circle Rifle fraternity composed of the leading riflemen of the country invites each year the leading teams of the United States to compete for a trophy. The trophy must be won three years by any one team to be kept permanently.

Last year when offered for the first time, the trophy was won by the University of Maryland. This year they lost by a score of 499-500 to the local team. Last year the G. W. co-eds did not compete.

It was hoped that the trophy would arrive in time to be presented at the Annual May Day Fete. It has not yet been received however.

Five Make Perfect Scores

Prospects of the team being able to keep the trophy for the next two years are bright. Only two of this year's championship team are graduating and many new "finds" are evident among the freshmen.

The girls who fired in the match are Betty Clark, 100; Marjorie Folsom, 100; Helen Prentiss, 100; Helen Taylor, 100; Verna Parsons, 100; Mae Huntzberger, 99; and Eugenia Cuvillier, 98. The high five scores counted.

As a post-season match, the girls are planning for an Inter-Sorority rifle contest next Thursday. This will be unofficial, but keen competition is expected.

At the Annual May Day Fete on Saturday of last week, percentage medals were presented to the nine girls shooting in the N. R. A. championship match. They were Katherine Shoemaker, Helen Taylor, Ermytrude Vaiden, Betty Clark, Verna Parsons, Helen Prentiss, Marjorie Folsom, Gene Cuvillier, and Mae Huntzberger. The first eight of these girls received their "major" letters in this sport.

KAPPA DELTA DOWNS PI PHI BASKETEERS

Chi Omega and Delta Zeta Lose by Default; Ewers Stars for K. D.

After several delays, intersorority basketball got under way to a late start last Thursday, May 12, in the Gym. Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Delta contested in the first game, which resulted in a 20-14 score, with K. D. on the long end.

Probably due to the lateness of the season and to the shortness of the notice of the schedule, that the games between Kappa Delta and Chi Omega, and Gamma Beta Pi and Delta Zeta were decided on defaults, with K. D. and Gamma Beta Pi the winners in their respective matches.

The game which was played off, however, provided of sufficient interest to the spectators who attended it. Alys Ewers was the high scorer for the winning team, having seven field goals and three free tosses to her credit. Harris and Miles of the losers were about even in scoring, with the former getting two field goals and two foul shots and the latter netting three field goals and two from the charity line.

The score follows:

COLONIALS TRIM CARDINALS AGAIN

George Washington Tennis Team Beats C. U. Netmen Five Matches to One

SICKLER TAKES THRILLER

Colonials Lose Abbreviated Contest To Franklin and Marshall in Return Match, 3-1

George Washington scored another victory over its old rival when the Colonial tennis team defeated the Cardinal netmen five matches to one at Brookland last Wednesday afternoon. To win both doubles matches and three of the singles contests, the local racketeers exhibited excellent court play. In a return match with the Franklin and Marshall team—on the Tuesday before, the Colonials were on the short end of a 3-1 score when rain stopped the games before the doubles could be played.

In the Catholic University contest, the most thrilling event of the day was the match between Don Sickler and Kiwaski, which had supporters of both teams guessing from start to finish. Using a fast serve at the start, Kiwaski took the offensive by winning two straight games and the first set 10-3.

Not to be outdone, Sickler came back in the second set, and, after several deuce games, tied the score at five all. Kiwaski lost the next game when two of his drives were out and two others went into the net. At this point, with the C. U. man serving, Sickler broke through to tie the set score at one each. The final set began with each player determined to win the match, and it progressed evenly, until both players had six games to their credit. Then Sickler once again won two straight games by copying his opponents service, and won the set and match, 8-10, 7-5, 8-6.

Hicks Wins for C. U.

The one match that the Cardinals won was played between Benny Detweiler and Hicks. Detweiler, of the locals, won the first set 6-3, but lost the second, 6-2. Hicks then showed some speed and appeared to get stronger as the match progressed to win a love set and the match.

These were the only contests that lasted more than two sets, the two doubles and two other singles being won rather easily by the Buff and Blue representatives. Durand scored a 6-1 victory over Riordan in the first set, and overcame some stiff opposition in the second to win 10-8. This latter was incidentally the longest extra game set of the afternoon.

The doubles event between Detweiler and Aronowsky, G. W., and Hicks and Riordan, C. U., developed into an interesting match, when the local courtmen took the first set 6-3, only to have the Cardinals come back strong in the second to gain an early lead. The Colonials soon overcame this handicap, however, and won set and match, 7-5.

In the abbreviated contest with the Franklin and Marshall team, the Colonials showed up better than they did in the previous match at Lancaster. Sickler won his match with Feagley in three sets by winning the first and third sets from the Pennsylvania.

Song Copies Stolen

The full popularity of the song hits from the Troubadour's Musical Comedy, "Not Yet, Fleurette," was realized last week when someone appropriated several copies of them from the car of the author while he was absent. It has been suggested that the person did not have the necessary "four bits" with which to purchase the songs, but the owner of them reports that his financial condition is about the same as the "thief," and requests that the songs be left in the Hatchet office for him.

BASEBALL IS DEAD

According to Coach H. Watson Crum, varsity baseball for this season is dead, as far as George Washington University is concerned.

The mentor was forced to announce the demise after trying in vain to arrange games with Catholic and American Universities.

Neither school seemed able to take on the Colonials until after the twentieth of the month. As the finals will be taking up everyone's time, including that of the players, a continuance of the season is out of the question.

PRINCETON DOWNS GOLFERS IN MATCH

G. W. Team Loses to Tiger Links, 3 to 1; Match Played at Trenton

The George Washington University Golf Team was eluded by the Princeton Tigers for a score of 3 to 1 in the match held last Wednesday at the Trenton Country Club, Trenton, N. J. The match was held in Trenton on Wednesday because of defects in the Tiger links. The course was in splendid shape, and both teams battled for honors over fast greens and good fairways.

The playing of both teams was consistently good. Jack Atherton, playing opposite Grace of Princeton, showed an exceptionally fine game and gave his opponent a good run.

Captain Cole Wins

Captain Cole on a 375-yard hole, after driving out of bounds, holed a second shot out, getting a birdie three. He defeated Robbins of Princeton, 4 and 3 for the only Colonial victory.

The team, consisting of Captain Charles Cole, Bob Groves, Marzulla, and Jack Atherton, journeyed to Princeton in Bob Groves' car, arriving Tuesday night.

Princeton is rated as having the second best college golf team in the country, having been beaten only by Alabama.

The individual match scores were: Cole (Capt. G. W.) beat Robbins (Princeton) 4 and 3; Marzulla (G. W.) lost to Johns (Princeton) 5 and 4; Groves (G. W.) lost to Ames (Capt. Princeton) 7 and 6; Atherton (G. W.) lost to Grace (Princeton) 2 and 1.

Scoring was done on each individual match, giving Princeton 3, and George Washington 1. This match will probably close the G. W. team's first season, although a match with Georgetown is still pending.

The custom of sending Gifts to Graduates has now been extended by general accord to include those in the lower classes who have manifested sufficient industry to pass their final exams.

To know what to give, one needs but observe the students' own expressions of preference for the Parker Duofold Pen and Pencil.

To have earned the favor of the younger generation is our reward for serving it with studied personal interest. We have lifted the frowns from student brows (among others) by giving the world a writing pair that are inspirations to work with and beauties to possess.

All those in favor of owning, or giving the finest—whether for Graduation, Birthday or Wedding Gifts, or for prizes at Bridge or Golf—will signify by stepping in to the nearest Parker pen counter. The first thing to look for is the imprint, "Geo. S. Parker," on the barrels. Then nobody will be disappointed.

AWARD PROPOSED ON 'POINT SYSTEM'

Extra-Curricular Work To Be Recognized By Insignia On Point Basis

FIFTEEN POINTS REQUIRED

Plan is Submitted to Presidents Student Advisory Committee For Consideration

Following up the belief that students should receive points for extra-curricular work, members of the President's Student Advisory Committee are now studying a report on the proposed "point system." This report was submitted at the last meeting of the committee by Henry James, Elizabeth Armentrout and John Ketcham, appointed recently by President Lewis as a special committee to consider the matter.

This special committee has recommended that fifteen points be required to earn the Honorary University Hatchet, the insignia standing for exceptional extra-curricular work. Each office has been graded a certain number of points according to the amount of work and ability involved. Thus some offices carry as many as six points while others are rated with only a half a point. A complete list of offices with their points will be printed if the President's Committee decides to adopt the proposed scheme.

Exception Service Grant. In addition to grading the various offices and positions, the special committee has made several recommendations with regard to extra-curricular work. It has recommended that when some exceptional service has been given to the University, seven points be awarded towards the honorary insignia.

For entertaining claims for this "honorary hatchet" the Committee has advised that the Chairman of the Insignia Committee, together with one delegate from each of the Student Activities Honor Societies, act as a committee; the Chairman of the Insignia Committee being permanent chairman of the former committee, and the meetings to be called at his discretion. This Committee is to decide who will receive the award for Distinguished Service.

These recommendations and the entire report will be thoroughly gone over at the next meeting of the President's Student Advisory Committee.

G. W. Asked To Take Part In Road Opening

Pageant to be Held at Fredericksburg, Virginia, May 28; Student Volunteers Wanted

George Washington University has been asked to take part in the celebration of the opening of the Richmond-Washington Highway to be held May 28 at Fredericksburg, Virginia. The exercises are called "Three Centuries of Travel by Land in the Old Dominion."

George Washington is to organize a pageant showing Washington, Lafayette, and other generals after the battle of Yorktown. The characters will be mounted and dressed in the costume of the period. Students of the University are asked to volunteer. All expenses of each participant will be paid and mounts and costumes are being furnished. All interested are invited to communicate with Prof. Kayser, Secretary of the University.

This event has particular significance to G. W. U. because of its name and also because Lafayette was the guest of honor at the first commencement exercises.

SWIMMING PRELIMS FOR CO-EDS TONIGHT

Finals Saturday, May 21, Also at "Y" Pool; Everyone Invited

Co-ed swimmers have been training strenuously for the past two weeks for the swimming preliminaries to be held tonight, May 18, at 8 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. pool, Seventeenth and K Streets. Those who qualify in the preliminary heats will swim in the finals to be held Saturday night, May 21, in the same pool.

Trial races have been held recently in order to give both the entrants and Miss Hopkins some idea of the comparative speed of the girls. They have also been coached in racing starts and turns by Miss Hopkins.

Not all the time has been spent on training for the meet however. Many of the swimming periods have been devoted to life-saving and a few girls have finished their senior work and many more expect to finish this week.

Swimming has proved more popular than ever this year and will most probably be held throughout all of next year.

Everyone is invited to attend the preliminaries and the finals of the meet. There is a special gallery for spectators at the pool and all are assured a seat secure from splashing.

QUADRANGULAR TRACK MEET TO CONCLUDE YEAR

Murphy, and Collins (C. U.), and Rose (Gallaudet). Walker will probably have the edge in this event.

As for the hurdles, Abbott and Smoot will be forced to hustle against Vivil (Hopkins), Byouk, Lau (Gallaudet), and Gerth (C. U.). Little is known concerning the relay teams of any of the schools, with the exception of the fact that the Colonial four easily defeated the Kendall Greeners' quartet last Saturday.

Fast Dashes Expected

In the dashes, DeVoe and Schnepf will face speedy sprinters in Champa Langley, and Smythe (C. U.), Belger and Thompson (Gallaudet). Johns Hopkins' short distance men have had little success this season.

Where Hopkins is expected to score heavily, however, is in the mile and two-mile runs, where they will enter Gwinn and Scheibel, two exceedingly fast distance men. Baker, Willett, Fairman, Pomeroy, and Domigan will be the Colonial entries, while Heinrich and Rosenkjar (Gallaudet), and Howell, Sheehy, Smith, and Beatty (Catholic U.), will make up the rest of the field.

The shorter 440-yard and 880-yard runs are expected to be hotly contested. George Washington will bank on Baker, Abbott, and Stevens to place high on the list. Thompson and Dobson will run for Gallaudet; Sullivan, Howell, Langley, and Smythe will represent C. U., and the Hopkins colors will be worn by Wheeler and others.

Since ability is so evenly divided in the various departments of the meet among the schools, a close contest is forecast. Perhaps the field events give the Colonials a little edge, but whether or not this margin will stand after the track events have been run will decide George Washington's chance to win the meet. In the past, the Buff and Blue has been hampered by wet grounds and tracks, but should Saturday come, and should there be a "fast" track at the Brookland stadium, past performances may be upset, and a new city champion crowned.

GIRL ATHLETES RECEIVE AWARDS

Letters, Numerals and Trophies Presented at Annual May Day Fete

AFFAIR IS HELD IN GYM

Dean Lapham, Professor Doyle, Coach Hopkins and Louise Omwake Make Talks

The girl athletes of G. W. came together in the second annual May Day Fete on Saturday, May 14, but not in Rock Creek Park as scheduled. Despite gloomy skies and occasional spells of rain, festivities were conducted amid much hilarity in the ever-useful gym. The usual peanut races, blindfold races, and one-leg races commenced the affair, along with contests in which blond rived brunettes for supremacy.

These strenuous amusements came to an end when Ermytrude Vaiden, Toast-Mistress, presented Louise Omwake, who made a brief speech of welcome.

Dean Lapham then gave a talk on his interest in women's athletics, showing how his interest typified that of everyone connected with the University.

Cups Presented

The loving cups won this year were presented by Dean Rose to the three girls whose merit claimed them. The Student Activity Cup, a three-year cup, was won this time by Ermytrude Vaiden. Leah Cate "walked away" with the cup given to the highest individual scorer in the Interclass Track Meet, and Naomi Crumley was awarded the beginner's cup in rifle.

Professor Doyle was called upon to speak next, and, after puzzling a moment, decided to tell the very interested athletes "How to Get a Man." His principal pointers were to the effect that all they needed was vast intelligence coupled with a small amount of charm, and the same speed in running away that they had just shown in the races. He cautioned them, however, to stop at times for a fleeting glance over their shoulders.

Hearty commendation of the girls who had participated in sports was given by Miss Hopkins. She also stated that between five and six hundred girls were out for sports, with thirty-five girls receiving one or more major letters. Most of these were won by seniors and juniors.

The tennis awards for the year 1926-1927, were major letters presented to Frances Walker, captain; Leah Cate, Alys Ewers, Elizabeth Garber, Miriam Davis and Marie Didden, manager.

All other awards were for the year 1926-1927.

Major Letters

In rifle, major letters went to Katharine Shoemaker, captain; Ermytrude Vaiden, manager; Elizabeth Clark; Eugenia Cuvillier, Marjorie Folsom, Verna Parsons, Helen Prentiss and Helen Taylor. Minor letters were given Mae Huntzberger, Suzanne Jamison and Grace McLean. The varsity rifle insignia for honorable mention was awarded Katharine Aud, Susan Aud, Naomi Crumley, Helen Humphrey, Esther Iglehart and Marian Stewart.

Major letters in basketball were given to Winifred Faunce, captain; Louise Omwake, manager; Leah Cate, Naomi Crumley, Alys Ewers, Elizabeth Hastings, Jean Jackson, Merla Matthews and Pauline Tomlin. Julia Denning, assistant manager, and Alice Massey won minor letters.

In hockey, major letters were awarded Alice Graham, captain; Margaret Schwartz, manager; Elizabeth Brandenburg, Myrtle Crouch, Louise Dubose, Mary Ewin, Mary K. Lutz, Alice Massey, Helen Miller, Louise Omwake, Vivian Robb and Ermytrude Vaiden. Minor letters were awarded Caroline Hobbs and Estelle Humphreys.

Gold medals for shooting above ninety per cent in the N. R. A. Intercollegiate were presented to the following rifle girls: Betty Clark, Eugenia Cuvillier, Marjorie Folsom, Verna Parsons, Helen Prentiss, Katharine Shoemaker, Helen Taylor and Ermytrude Vaiden.

Class Numerals

Class numerals were awarded in hockey to the junior-senior team, which was composed of Betty Brandenburg, Mary Ewin, Elizabeth Hastings, Mae Huntzberger, Ruth Jackson, Alice Massey, Helen Miller, Louise Omwake, Vivian Robb, Ermytrude Vaiden and Mrs. Roe.

Class numerals in basketball were given Alys Ewers, Elizabeth Hastings, Jean Jackson, Alice Massey, Merla Matthews, Katharine Shoemaker, Ermytrude Vaiden and Grace Young.

In rifle class numerals were awarded Kathleen Aud, Joyce Graham, Ruth Jackson, Elizabeth Masterson and Elsie Talbot.

Class numerals in track were awarded Leah Cate, Naomi Crumley and Alice Ewers.

The Pan-Hellenic Council announced that prizes are to be given as usual to the basketball and rifle teams.

Track medals also will be presented later in the year.

As the tennis season is not yet over, the winners of the doubles cup, and of major letters have not been determined.

NEW OFFICERS CHOSEN BY MENORAH SOCIETY

The Menorah Society held elections at the last meeting of the year, on Wednesday, April 1. All the old officers were re-elected. These officers are Jack Lightman, president; Samuel Rapport, vice-president; Lena Hyatt, corresponding secretary; Lillian Brunschwitz, recording secretary, and Israel Mendelsohn, treasurer.

Ford Young Renamed President of 'Pep' Club

Other Officers Elected at Regular Meeting Last Thursday in Corcoran Hall 1

Ford Young was re-elected to lead the G. W. U. School Spirit Club at the regular meeting held in Corcoran Hall 1, last Thursday morning. Other officers elected were: Darrell Crane, Vice-President, Peggy Maize, Secretary, and Bradford Swope, Treasurer.

Nominations for sergeant-at-arms included William Alewine, William Mitchell, and William Dismar. This election will be held at the regular meeting tomorrow.

School spirit in athletics was the subject discussed before the meeting by the president. Relations between George Washington and Catholic University were brought up and were called the most colorful of the year. The G. W. U. representatives in the quadrangular track meet to be held at C. U. Saturday were pledged the support of the organization.

SENIOR HIGH STUDENTS GUESTS OF UNIVERSITY

Dean Wilbur and Prominent Students Address Meeting Held in Gym Wednesday

Discipline and culture are indispensable for leadership, Dean Wilbur pointed out in his talk last Wednesday before the third annual high school night held in the gymnasium. He added further that a man can be a good worker or a good citizen without a college education, but that what a college education does is to train the imagination and vision of men and give them systematic education in discipline and culture.

Approximately 200 students of the senior classes of Central, Western, McKinley, Technical, Eastern and Business High School attended the reception held by the University in their honor.

Harold Young, president of the Men's G. W. Club, spoke on the various activities of the University, including publications, honor societies, social life, fraternities, Men's Glee Club, and the Men's G. W. Club.

Glee Club Sings

Ermytrude Vaiden, vice president of the Women's G. W. Club, emphasized the opportunities for women students in all college activities. She stated that the G. W. girls had the city of Washington as their campus, used the Y. W. C. A. pool for swimming, played hockey on the Ellipse, and took joy rides on the Speedway.

The Men's Glee Club sang several selections. Song hits and choruses from "Not Yet, Fluerette" were given, and Billie Wright and Carr Ferguson were featured in "The Cottage of Dreams," one of the hits of the show.

After the program Elmer Brown played for a dance, using mainly songs from the Troubadours musical comedy show. Between dances copies of the Hatchet and the Ghost were distributed.

Professor Henry C. Doyle had charge of the program.

Co-Ed Net Stars Beat American U. Twice

Take Two Matches From Local Rivals in Same Week; Team Goes to W. and M.

Colonial co-ed racketers twice proved their superiority over the American University girls' team last week, winning every match of the six played Wednesday, and three out of five of the matches played Friday, on the Seventeenth and H Streets courts.

Wednesday, Frances Walker, G. W., outplayed Florence Fellows, A. U., to take the first set 6-2 and the second 6-1. Louise Omwake defeated Katherine Severance 6-3, 6-0, and Edith Petrie took a love set and a 6-1 set from Gladys Macafee. In the doubles Walker and Petrie defeated Chadwick and Fellows 6-1 and 6-0, and Ewers and Hastings won from Inlay and Martz 6-2, 6-1.

The American U. girls staged a gallant comeback Friday when, in the singles Florence Fellows defeated Alys Ewers 7-5, 6-4, and Gladys Macafee took two 6-4 sets from Louise Murphy. Edith Petrie defeated Katherine Severance, however, 6-2, 6-1, and the two doubles matches went to George Washington when Merla Matthews and Louise Omwake, and Frances Walker and Edith Petrie won from their opponents.

The team sent to William and Mary Monday was picked largely on the exhibitions of tennis shown in these matches and the one with Hood College. The girls were Frances Walker, Louise Omwake, Alys Ewers, captain, Merla Matthews, Elizabeth Hastings, Virginia Blackstone, manager, and Coach Hopkins.

VAIDEN WINS ACTIVITY CUP BY LARGE MARGIN

Ermytrude Vaiden won the Student Activity Cup, so keenly contested for this year, according to announcements made at the May Day Fete on Saturday, May 14.

The cup, won last year by Ruth Jackson, is awarded by Delta Tau Delta and must be won three years in succession to become a permanent possession.

The girls with over a hundred points towards the cup at the close of the season are as follows:

Ermytrude Vaiden	181
Louise Omwake	142
Elizabeth Clark	116
Julia Denning	112
Eugenia Cuvillier	108

CONSTITUTION OF W. S. G. A. ADOPTED

Two Amendments Added Before Measure is Passed Widen Representation

MEETING REPRESENTATIVE

Women Hope to Put New Constitution Into Effect Before End of Year

A constitution for the Women's Self Government Association was adopted at the second mass meeting of women students held in Corcoran Hall 1, on Monday, May 9. It is expected to be put into effect before the close of the present school year.

After vigorous discussion two amendments to the constitution were adopted. The revised form of each is given below.

"Article IV, Section 2. The Council shall consist of representatives from Dramatics, Athletics, Publications, Y. W. C. A., Glee Club, Hour Glass, Debate, Pan-Hellenic, the non-resident students, one from each class of the Department of Arts and Sciences, and Phi Sigma Sigma." The foregoing was inserted in the constitution because Phi Sigma Sigma, while a sorority, is not a member of Pan-Hellenic and under the first form of the constitution did not have the same status as the other social sororities on the campus.

Elections Soon

"Article III. All women students registered for undergraduate degrees in the Department of Arts and Sciences shall be members of the Women's Self Government Association, and all women students registered in the Law and Medical Schools, upon application to the Association." Thus the membership of the women of the Law and Medical Schools is entirely optional.

The clause was felt to be necessary since these women have evinced a sustained interest in extra-curricular activities, although students in graduate courses are seldom expected to take an active part in any but scholastic fields.

The meeting held last Monday was a very representative one, for in spite of the fact that it was not large, there was at least one member from each of the organizations which are to have a representative on the governing council, as well as law school students and pre-medical students.

Women students will convene again in the near future to elect officers and to put the constitution into working order for the coming year.

DEAN HENNING SPEAKS BEFORE CERCLE GALLIA

Le Cercle Gallia held its last meeting of the year last Friday evening.

Dean George W. Henning, head of the Department of Romance Languages at the University, gave a brief talk in French, and M. Benetou made a few comments on French literature which he said was not only conservative but progressive and questioning as well.

Professor Merle I. Protzman sang accompanied by Mrs. Foster at the piano. His encore, Le Col, by de Vigny, was much appreciated. The program closed with a recitation by Mrs. Anderson, a guest. Refreshments were served, followed by dancing. About thirty-five were present.

Co-Eds Will Spend Week-End at Camp

Helen Dix, Louise Du Bose, and Dorothy Ruth to Attend Conference

As May 26, the final day of registration for the Kamp Kahlert weekend party, draws nearer George Washington co-eds are signing up to join the Y. W. girls in their annual trip to the Y. camp, on West River, Md. The girls will leave the University June 10, arriving at Kahlert in time for supper, and will return Sunday afternoon, June 12. Various sports will be offered during these three days, including swimming, boating, hiking and tennis. It is not necessary to be a member of the organization to go on the trip.

Registrations should be sent to Louise Omwake or Louise Du Bose by May 26. The trip will cost $3.25, a dollar of which must be paid at time of registration.

At the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A. three delegates were elected to go to the joint Y. M. and Y. W. student conference at Eagles Mere, Pennsylvania. The delegates elected were Helen Dix, president, Louise Du Bose, secretary, and Dorothy Ruth. The conference will be held June 10-20.

OHIO STATE PUTS END TO ALL FROSH HAZING

Change in Policy Noticed at Wisconsin, New Hampshire, Capitol University and Cincinnati

COLUMBUS—"Any man who is in any way connected with throwing a freshman in the lake will sever his connection with this university." With this peremptory statement, President George W. Rightmire, of Ohio State University, announced the end of freshman hazing at the institution. Hazing may soon be as much a thing of the past in the colleges—as old fashioned as peg-top trousers, recent college events seem to indicate.

"Freshman rules, and sophomore traditions are giving way before an enlightened upper-class sentiment to the effect that freshmen have a right to be treated as human beings," reports "The Daily Cardinal," University of Wisconsin. The freshman and sophomore classes at the University of New Hampshire have modified the traditional freshman rules.

Hazing has been abolished at Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio. At the University of Cincinnati "Frosh taming gives way to training." The student council has dissolved the vigilance committee and supplanted it by the Men's and Women's guidance committees, who are to train the beginner in the rudiments of University of Cincinnati traditions and campus rules.

TO ERECT FLAGPOLE BASE

ATLANTA—Seniors of Georgia Tech will erect a base to the flagpole which now stands in the middle of the campus, is the recent decision of the class.

ARGENTINE GIFT RECEIVED HERE BY G. W. LIBRARY

Comision Protectora de Bibliotecas Populares Sends 120 Volumes

IS SECOND COLLECTION TO BE GIVEN UNIVERSITY

Many Notable Works in Fields of History, Social Sciences, etc., are Included

Professor Henry Grattan Doyle has recently made announcement of a splendid gift to the University library of a second collection of Argentine books. It is, according to him, the second notable gift from the Argentine government consisting of 120 volumes of representative works by Argentine authors, which will be added to the Argentine section of the library.

These works are sent by the Comision Protectora de Bibliotecas Populares, a government agency, the duties of which are to establish and develop public libraries in the towns of Argentina, and to send Argentine books to selected libraries and specialists in other American countries. It seems difficult to conceive of a more effective method of developing these bonds of understanding and respect which determine sound international relations. Through the operations of the Commission, Argentine sections are created or greatly strengthened in various libraries of the United States where adequate material will be found for the study of the political, economic and cultural history of Argentina.

Medical and Law Books

The present collection contains material in history, political, economic and social sciences, medicine, architecture, law and belles lettres. The following titles will serve to indicate the value of the material in history, politics and economics: "Acedo Diaz, 'La Republica Argentina,'" Alberdi, "Obras selectas," 18 v., "Memorias postumas del General J. M. Paz," Corra Luna, "Alvear," Dellepiane, "Dorrego y el federalismo argentino," Gonzalez, "Le Argentina y sus amigos," and "Mis montañas," Vicente Fidel Lopez, "Historia Argentina," 10 v., Vera y Gonzalez Historia argentina, 3 v., Matienzo, "El gobierno representativo federal," Rodriguez del Busto, "El sistema de gobierno dual de Argentina," Vedia y Mitre, "El dean Funes," Lopez Varela, "El regimen impositivo argentino." The obvious importance of these works renders individual comment unnecessary.

In the field of medicine, law, etc., are Araoz, "Estudios clinicos sobre tuberculosis," Miranda Gallino, "Radiologia del corazon," Noel, "Contribucion a la historia de la arquitectura hispano-americana," Bermann, "Jose Ingenieros," Arancibia Rodriguez, "Proyecto de codigo de procedimiento penal."

"In conclusion," says Professor Doyle, "this is a well balanced, representative collection, an excellent expression of Argentine intellectual activities, which must, as a section of the University library, effectively aid, in developing in the United States an acquaintance with Argentine thought and in strengthening the spiritual relations that should exist between the countries of America." This question from the letter of Dr. Miguel F. Rodriguez, president of the Comision, is a fine expression of the objectives of the body over which he presides.

PYRAMIDERS POUND "PREXY" PITILESSLY

The first four innings of the game, the professor smoked a heavy, brown pipe of uncertain age, but changed in its favor of an amber cigarette holder and a Lucky Strike at the beginning of the fifth inning. This step was doubtless taken because Dr. Croissant felt that the cigarette was more in keeping with the cane and light gray gloves which he carried in his left hand.

Batboy Quits

Until the sixth inning, the faculty batboy faithfully collected the flails for his team, but at that time he mysteriously disappeared along with Dean William Allen Wilbur, with whom he had been conversing. As a consequence, the end of the game found the faculty bats in a disorder which greatly resembled the famous game of Jack-straws.

But to return to the game. Prexy Lewis was roughly handled in the second frame, when fourteen batters faced him. A triple, a double, five singles, two bases on balls, and four errors tell the story of the Pyramid's nine runs, which definitely decided the outcome of the game.

Again in the third inning, a wierd assortment of hits and free passes from relief pitcher Tillema allowed five more runs to cross the plate. "Tillema" (so called by his faculty cohorts) tightened up in the fourth, and set the honor men down with a single tally, which was caused by errors afield. The fifth and sixth sessions were fruitless for the Pyramid, but in the seventh, when Roe was substituted for Tillema, the honor men regained their batting eyes, and pushed their final half-dozen runs over the counting block.

Faculty Starts Rally

The professors scored once in the second on a hit, two stolen bases, and an error. The fourth inning produced another score on Crum's screaming two-bagger to center, and Bement's single. Mason was safe on an error in the fifth, stole second, and counted on Bolwell's single to right. Another run was scored in the same manner in the following inning, but it was in the final box that the faculty made its last stand.

A determined seventh-inning rally got under way as Mason walked. Bolwell hit a one-baser to left, Roe was safe on a dropped third strike, Ross was safe on an error, and Mason scored. Bement and "Andy" Anderson were also walked, forcing in two more runs, and the final two runs of the game resulted from a clean bingle to center by Roe. Mason, up for the second time in the inning, struck out, and the rally fell just fifteen runs short of tying the score.

The old hidden-ball trick was tried twice during the game and worked both times. Prexy Lewis was the first victim, as he was caught off second in the sixth inning. The faculty was avenged, however, in the first of the seventh, when Miller was caught flat-footed at second by Bement.

Guy Hottel was the star of the day for the Pyramids. He collected five singles and a double in six times at bat, stole three bases, struck out three men, and scored five runs himself. Mason and Bement were best among the faculty.

Manager Henry G. Doyle, of the professors' nine, gave out the following statement at the end of the game: "The Pyramid society defeated us, but just consider the runs we scored in the seventh, and contemplate what the outcome would have been if we had played two more innings. We have no regrets."

A statement could not be secured from Hillary A. Tolson, Pyramid manager. He was too busy conciliating his defeated profs and studying for the finals.

TRACK TEAM WINS HOTCHKISS TROPHY

and in a third contest were able to gain but one-half a point. Hartzog, Walker, and Suter, all of George Washington, placed first, second, and third, respectively, in the discuss, while the Colonial mile relay team finished 40 yards ahead of their opponents. Calame, of Gallaudet, tied with Hartzog for third place in the pole vault, after Morrow and Elliott had placed first and second, and thus kept his team from another coat of whitewash.

Abbott High Scorer

Abbott was the leading point-getter for the Colonials, taking first in the high hurdles and the high jump, and second in the low hurdles for a total of 13 counters. Elliott and Willett, with 10 points each, were tied for second honors. Bilger and Thompson were the high men for Gallaudet, scoring eight points each.

The thrill of the meet came in the broad jump. Despite the drizzle and the uncertain footing, Elliott and Smith, both of George Washington, duelled grimly for first place. When the final jumps had been made, it was discovered that Elliott had defeated his teammate by the extremely narrow margin of one-half inch, jumping a distance of 20 feet 1 1/4 inches.

Higgins, of George Washington, was the only casualty which the slippery field caused. During the course of the 440 yard run he took a bad spill at the turn, and was unable to finish. The scratches he received will not prevent him from competing again this year, however.

The only amusing incident in an otherwise damp and drab afternoon was occasioned by the vivid, polychrome-flowered vest which Horace Domigan wore in the mile run. This garment caused much laughter among the spectators, one of whom asserted that Domigan's failure to win the race was due to the extra weight worn over his track shirt.

A summary of the events follows:

100-yard dash—Won by DeVoe (G. W.); second, Bilger (G.); third, Schnepf (G. W.). Time, 0:10 4/5.
Mile run—Won by Willett (G. W.); second, Heinrich (G.); third, Domigan (G. W.). Time, 4:58 2/5.
Javelin—Won by Walker (G. W.); second, Wineland (G. W.); third, Rose (G.). Distance, 157 feet 4 inches.
440-yard run—Won by Baker (G. W.); second, Thompson (G.); third, Stevens (G. W.). Time, 0:53 2/5.
Shotput—Won by Popham (G. W.); second, Wineland (G. W.); third, Byouk (G.). Distance, 33 feet 1/2 inch.
120-yard high hurdles—Won by Abbott (G. W.); second Byouk (G.); third, Smoot (G. W.). Time, 0:17.
Pole vault—Won by Morrow (G. W.); second, Elliott (G. W.); tie for third

MODERN AIRCRAFT TOPIC OF LEWIS' CHAPEL TALK

President Lewis discussed Modern Aircraft in Chapel on Wednesday, May 11. He spoke of the many sacrifices made in this field and referred to the two French aviators, Captain Charles Nungesser and Captain Francois Coll. Dr. Lewis stated, however, that these sacrifices were necessary in every field of progress. Films were shown to illustrate modern aircraft.

AVUKAH ELECTS OFFICERS

The Avukah elected its officers for next year on May 5. They are: Isidore Lavine, president; Simon Rapoport, vice-president; Esther Weckler, recording secretary; Lena Hyatt, corresponding secretary, and Mr. Olderman, sergeant-at-arms.

$5,700 IN PRIZES FOR ARTICLES ON WILSON

Woodrow Wilson Foundation Announces Awards to Young People Submitting Best Articles

Two awards of $25,000 each are being offered by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation to the young man and young woman who writes the best article on "What Woodrow Wilson Means to Me." Announcement of the prizes has been made by Frances R. Bellamy, Executive Director of the contest.

Persons between the ages of 20 and 35 years are eligible to compete. The essays must not be more than 2,500 words in length and must be submitted before October 1, 1927. The ideals and principles of Wilson rather than his acts, should be appraised in the article.

Supplementary Prizes

In addition to the two large prizes, $7,000 in supplementary prizes will be awarded.

The Philadelphia Record, a Republican newspaper, has made the following comment on the award.

"The age limits prescribed for competitors for these substantial awards suggest that the object of the Foundation is to promote a study of the Wilson ideals by that element of our population which may reasonably be expected to guide the thought of the country not next year or the year after, but 10 or 20 years hence. For obviously no one can hope to seriously contend for such prizes without first having made a searching inquiry into the writings, public utterances and mental processes of his subject. This is not a scheme to create converts to the Democratic cause but to broaden the outlook of our young men and young women with regard to principles and policies that far transcend in significance any division along party lines."

For special rules write The Woodrow Wilson Foundation, 17 E. 42nd Street, New York City.

Pipe Courses Not Most Popular With Students

Psychology Prof. at Minnesota Finds Many Students Interested in More Difficult Subjects

MINNEAPOLIS—"Pipe" courses are not the most popular courses with students after all, says Donald G. Paterson, professor of psychology at the University of Minnesota, in an evaluation of the orientation course given there.

The knowledge that interest is not lacking in a field because of its difficulty is data directly in variance with the doctrine of formal discipline, the report says.

Students are more interested in psychology, cultural expression and the fine arts, biology, eugenics, astronomy, and social origins than in such subjects as economics, political science, historical and structural geology, and geography.

CLAPHAM ELECTED TO HEAD A. S. C. E. CHAPTER

Wentworth B. Clapham was elected president of the George Washington University Student Chapter, American Society of Civil Engineers, at the final meeting of the school year, which was held last Friday evening.

Other officers elected were: William R. Lane, vice-president; Hugh B. Sampson, secretary; Harry N. Schofer, treasurer, and Nelson Bennett, executive committeeman.

"Railroad Valuation" was the subject of an interesting talk given by H. B. Sampson before the meeting. Other talks were "The United States Patent System," by H. B. Freehof, and "Public Roads," by J. E. Gray.

PRINCETON PROFESSOR FLAYS MODERN COLLEGE

Jefferson, Franklin, Cleveland, Lincoln, Could Not Graduate, Says Walter Lincoln Whittlesey

Neither Jefferson, Franklin, Cleveland nor Lincoln would be able to graduate from an American University of the present day, is the verdict of Walter Lincoln Whittlesey, professor of politics at Princeton.

The present tendency of colleges is to turn out a uniform type of mind, he says, and the whole emphasis of modern higher education places a premium on memory and glibness.

Tightening up of discipline is due, he asserts, is due to cheap publications which have made the average college student appear much worse than he really is "Young Jefferson or Franklin would be fired in short order, today," he said, "for they would not be likely to submit to restraints put upon modern students. I doubt very much if either would have lasted through his freshman year."

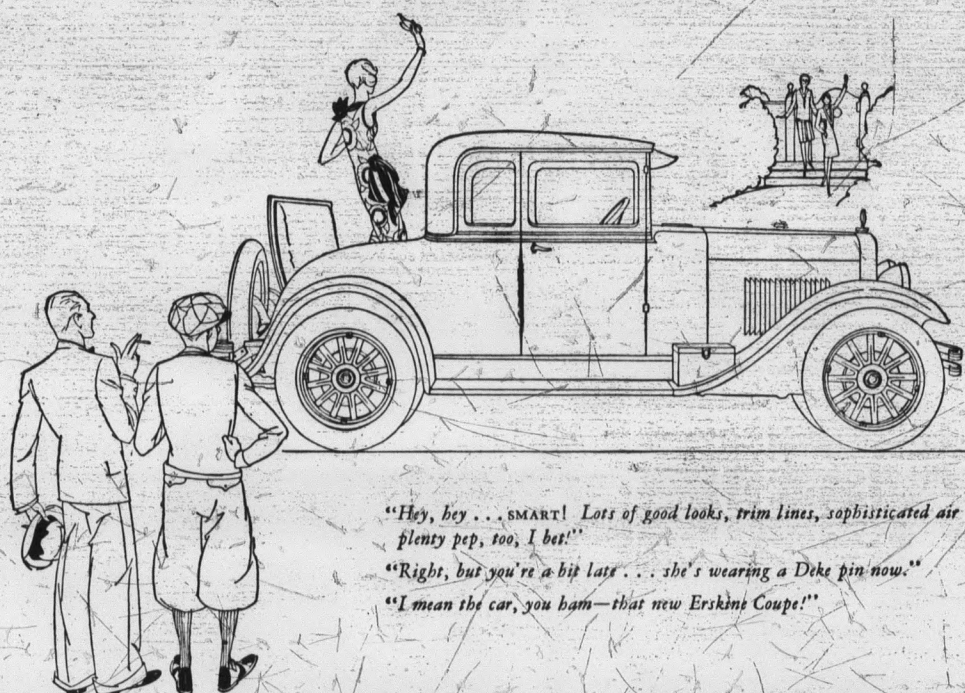

"Lincoln wouldn't have remained in college because his mind would have so soon outrun the bounds imposed that he would have been unwellcome as a student. Cleveland never could have graduated from college as it is today because he was too slow a thinker and lacked the necessary ability to talk or write glibly."

"Right, but you're a bit late... she's wearing a Deke pin now."

"I mean the car, you bam—that new Erskine Coupe!"

JUNE DAYS... Youth steps on the gas. A round of golf... sailing, with rails awash... tennis... a dip in the surf... a spin down the road at twilight... June nights... white flannels... a dance at the country club. A riot of music... white hot. The girl with the asbestos slippers... on with the dance. Then home—the way silvered with June moonlight—in your Erskine Sport Coupe.

Dietrich, America's peerless custom designer, has styled it with the sophisticated Parisian manner for America's youth. Trim as a silk glove, yet at no sacrifice of roominess... two in the commodious lounge seat and two more in the rumble seat—just a foursome.

Youthful in its eager performance too. Rides any road at sixty—smoothly as a drifting canoe. Goes through traffic like a co-ed through her allowance. Skyrockets up the steepest hill like a climbing pursuit plane. Stops in its own length, turns in its own shadow and parks where you want to park.

Joyous June, All too short... lots of glorious living to be crowded into one month. Make the most of it—with an Erskine Coupe—the car that matches the spirit of Youth.

The Erskine Six Sport Coupe, as illustrated, sells for $995 f.o.b. factory, complete with front and rear bumpers and self-energizing 4-wheel brakes. See it at any Studebaker showroom.

FIFTEEN INITIATED BY GATE AND KEY

Men Who Have Shown Themselves Outstanding in Various Activities Honored

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Plans and Date for Spring Party are Made; Five Members Elected

Gate and Key honorary interfraternity society held its regular spring initiation at the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house, May 10, at which time the following men were initiated: Donald Iglehart, Henry Herzog, Robert H. Geisler, James Murphy, Ware Adams, William Wade, Verne Sullivan, Rollo Carter, Henry Lansdon, George Souther, Elmer Brown, A. E. Olsen, Don Sickler, Vance Brand, and George Martin.

Five men who have shown outstanding ability in various fields were elected to membership and will probably be initiated at the regular fall initiation.

Ketcham is President

In the election of officers for the coming year John Ketcham was elected president to succeed Richard McPherson; vice president, Smith Brookhart; to succeed Joseph Rutley; secretary, Vernon Brown; to succeed George Von Dachenhausen; and for treasurer Richard McPherson to succeed John Ketcham. These officers were installed at the meeting and will direct the affairs of Gate and Key for the remainder of this school year.

Plans for the Gate and Key Spring Party were discussed and laid. The date has been definitely set for June 4. In all probability a boat will be chartered for a trip of undetermined length down the Potomac, with stops for lunch and swimming. All alumni members of the society will be notified of the plans for the trip and it is expected that the ranks of the actives will be swelled considerably from this source.

The secretary was instructed to send a letter from the society to President Lewis expressing an appreciation of his efforts in furthering the aims of George Washington University, and in regret of his loss by the University.

The Motion Picture

By JOHN MILLIGAN

The principal difficulty in the path of the motion picture as it moves to a place among the arts is not the ordinary punk picture. It is the big super-special picture, florid and tasteless, that costs $456,654,432 and is therefore hailed by most dramatic critics as a work of art.

The poor little program picture, which makes no boast beyond satisfying the great unwashed, has as definite and deserved place in the film business as the burlesque show has in the legitimate. No one is misled by this junk—it is soon forgotten.

But the "epics" present a real problem. From "The Birth of a Nation" and William Fox's extravaganzas along about 1917 and 1918, to "The Covered Wagon" and "Ben-Hur" the super-production has been a sorry sight indeed when regarded as art. Mr. Cecil B. De Mille, a gentleman with great technical proficiency and a flabbergasting ego, takes a pile of gold and produces one flashy film after another, with bedroom sets and just enough ideas to sustain the acting, and is entitled a "master." When he turned to making such silly things as "The Ten Commandments" he became more than a master, he became a "superman." Thus it goes—real thoughtfulness and discrimination in the films cannot be appreciated outside of Europe and New York, and by one or two scattered critics in Washington, etc.

This sad spectacle is sadder because the dear old public pays out $1.50, sees an American flag waving and ten thousand extras snorting about the lot at Universal City, and is firmly convinced that this is great stuff. You can therefore imagine the reception of a truly great film—"A Woman of Paris" for instance.

It means a fight in the future, a fight for decent and artistic productions. There have been quite a few splendid films, like "The Big Parade" etc., which have deserved the encomiums of harrassed critics—even though the scenery was lousy with extras. It is against the quiet and stirring little pieces, revealing imagination and taste, that the boys stub their toes. "The Last Laugh" was denounced by small town critics; "Salome" was barred from several cities.

Neither this guy Milligan, the target of a dozen profound letters to Howard Baggett, nor anyone else cares how many program pictures are produced and enjoyed. Neither does anyone care how many "epics" are shown for $1.50. But we do care when mere ostentation is judged aesthetic and the attempts of a few minds like Murnau, Chaplin, L'Herbier, etc., to make something

DOCTORS HOLDING CONVENTION HERE

Twenty-eighth Annual Meeting of American Medical Association Now in Session

MANY ARE G. W. U. ALUMNI

President Coolidge Gives Official Address of Welcome; Clinic Demonstrations Held

This week Washington is seeing the largest gathering of Medical men ever held, when the American Medical Association holds its 28th annual convention here. This is the first time that the association has held its convention here in fifty-seven years.

About eight thousand delegates from all over the world are attending, and a large number among them are G. W. U. alumni. Representatives from British, French, German, Italian, Mexican and Canadian medical societies will be in attendance.

The convention opened Monday at 10 o'clock with the first meeting of the House of Delegates, which is the legislative branch of the association. This session was held in the auditorium of the District Medical Society, at 1718 M St. N. W.

Addresses were given by Dr. Frederick C. Warnshuis, of Grand Rapids, Mich., who is the speaker of the House of Delegates; Dr. Wendell C. Phillips, New York, President of the Association; and Dr. Jabez N. Jackson, Kansas City, Mo., president-elect of the association. Following the addresses, reports of the officers and various committees were presented.

To Install President

The scientific assembly of the association was officially opened at 8.30 Tuesday night at the Arcade Auditorium. President Coolidge gave the official welcome to the delegates. The meeting was called to order by Dr. Phillips, and the invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Chas. Wood. Dr. Charles S. White, president of the District Medical Society, gave an address of welcome. The last feature of the evening will be the installation of Dr. Jackson, president-elect, who will preside in the coming year.

This morning the convention divides into fifteen sections for the discussion of various phases of the medical science.

One of the principal events of the convention will be the election of officers by the House of Delegates, Thursday. The House of Delegates is composed of 126 delegates from the States and the various sections of the association. It has been more than 30 years since a president was elected from Washington and it is said that since the convention is being held in Washington and the presidency has been enjoyed by prominent physicians from other parts of the country for so long, it is possible that the next president may be a Washingtonian.

Clinics for the demonstration and teaching in various branches of medicine were opened Monday. These clinics were conducted by experts, and each clinic will be very instructive to the physicians attending them, teaching them new and improved methods for treatment.

JOINT MEETING A. S. M. E. HELD AT COSMOS CLUB

"My Twenty-five Thousand Mile Airplane Trip over Europe and What I Learned," was the subject of an illustrated lecture given by Charles M. Ripley, engineer, author and traveler before a joint meeting of the Washington, D. C. section of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, held in conjunction with the student branches of George Washington University and Catholic University, at the Cosmos Club Hall last Thursday evening.

The speaker, who is a native of Indiana and a graduate of Purdue University, has been with the General Electric Company since 1916. He was a close friend of the late Dr. Steinmetz, who wrote an introduction to one of his outstanding books, "Romance in a Great Factory."

A study by contrast of the effects of modern machinery on the life of man in emancipating him from the heavy burdens of so-called "quaint peasant life" was given by the lecture and stereoscopic pictures. Frequent humorous sidelights accompanied the features of the travelogue and economic study.

GENTILE ZIONIST OFFICER

W. F. Alderson, of the University, has the distinction of being the only Gentile sergeant-at-arms of a Zionist organization in America. He was recently elected to that office by the George Washington student Avukah Society.

worth while are announced as tiresome. Some day the Becky Sharps of today are going to be rooting for fine films. That day will come when they understand that there are movies they are supposed to like. When they see Shakespeare and Racine on the stage they know they are supposed to like it, and set off rockets. When an Eugene O'Neill comes along they first proclaim that they can't see anything in him, but when he becomes a movement or something they succumb.

The same will be true of the motion picture. When the distinction between the stage and screen is recognized, when even college students realize that the screen can be an entity in itself, and not an offshoot of the stage, when "The Last Laugh" is revived as Sheridan is revived, then the "young intellectuals" will begin to discuss the aesthetic in the films.

Let's hope that they arrive at interesting conclusions.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO SING AT C. H. S. TONIGHT

Close Successful Season With Series of Concerts, First of Which Was Held Monday

The Girls' Glee Club will end a successful season with the last of a series of concerts to be held this evening at Central High School. In this recital they will be given the opportunity of singing a group of new and appealing songs.

The first concert of this final series was held in Room 1 of Corcoran Hall last Monday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock. This program was planned in accordance with the Club's custom of giving one concert each year at the school, and an admission of 50 cents was charged.

To Get Pins

Tonight the girls will sing in connection with the Federation of Women's Glee Clubs, at Central High School. This is to consist in a series of numbers, submitted by the various directors of the organizations belonging to the Federation. The selections were made on the basis of melody, technique, and adaptability to part singing.

In addition to the Glee Club Chorus, the Club is also offering several choruses and solo selections, which show off the greatest advantage, perhaps, the capability of the directress of the society.

The proceeds of the two pay concerts held Monday night and last night will go toward defraying expenses of the gold pins which are awarded at the end of one year in the club, and the pearl pins for two years, both of which are in the shape of a lyre, and bear the initials G. W. U. at the bottom.

NEWMAN CLUB MEETS

Sixty members of the Newman Club attended the Club luncheon at the Congressional Country Club on Saturday, May 7. After the luncheon, the members availed themselves of the splendid facilities of the club for swimming, golfing and tennis.

The next and final meeting of the club will be held in Corcoran Hall on Tuesday evening, May 17. Plans for the next school year will be discussed and a short talk given by the Chaplain, Dr. John Keating Cartwright. All members have been urged to attend.

WINNING ARCHITECTURE DRAWINGS ON EXHIBITION

Sketches Which Took Prizes May Be Seen Here

Drawings entered in the 19th Paris Prize Competition of the Society of Beaux Arts Architects, and which won the first three places last year, are now on exhibition in the Architecture Building. They may be seen at any time and are on the first floor to the left of the entrance.

The sketches are of a natatorium in an inland city, and include that of Carl E. Landefeld, who won first place in the competition and was given the $3,000 award for a year's study in Paris. Mr. Landefeld did the work under the supervision of professors at Yale University.

JOURNALISM IN JAPAN SUBJECT OF LECTURE

K. K. Kawakami, Japanese Journalist, Tells of Newspaper Conditions in His Country

"Japanese Journalism" was the subject of an address by K. K. Kawakami, a Japanese newspaperman of note, at the first meeting of the International Relations Club held last week.

In the development of his subject Mr. Kawakami brought out many interesting sidelights on journalism and its problems in Japan. Three editions of each paper are published, morning, evening and the local editions. This latter is the cause of a great deal of inconvenience since news from each locality must have its own edition. Despite this burden the whole service is delivered for one yen a month or in American money about 50 cents.

Mr. Kawakami stated that the Japanese papers are devoid of sensationalism, being entirely given over to serious matter. The newspapers are very modern and maintain huge buildings devoted wholly to the interest of the newspaper and its staff. The papers carry on scientific research and are in other respects on a very high level.

Tuesday the council of the club met, electing William Henry Harrison president, and made plans for next year. The club also voted to limit the membership to 35. Persons wishing to join have been requested to make application at once.

Camel is the modern favorite

MODERN smokers make known their preference. And they call for Camels. Never in any age was there a smoking favorite like Camel is today. Camels understand every mood of the modern smoker. Camel mildness and smoothness are supreme with the critical taste of present-day people.

A purchase of Camels brings you the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Blended by skill into the world's most popular smoke, and the best. Quality unapproached, is the distinguishing mark of Camel.

No matter what the price, there is no better cigarette than Camels. Smoke them as frequently as you please. You will never be left with a cigarette after-taste. Camels aren't made that way. That is why modern smokers everywhere demand them. That is why this age has discovered the tobacco phrase, "Have a Camel!"
